

Our school is going to organise Cambridge English exams for children and students in April. Your children will have a chance to take a YLE (Starters, Movers, Flyers level) KET for schools or PET for schools exam (more info below). The exams will take place in the Ostrčilova school building during the morning classes. The children will then get a certificate as an internationally recognised language qualification. Cambridge exams are valued around the world and, with a Cambridge English qualification, children can access the best study, work and life opportunities.

3. All of this till the 6th March 2015 at the latest.

YLE Exams

Cambridge English: Young Learners is a series of fun, motivating English language tests, aimed at children in primary and lower-secondary education. There are three activity-based tests – Starters, Movers and Flyers. This gives students a clear path to improve in English.

- Starters – level Beginner
- Movers - level A1
- Flyers - level A2

YLE exam consists of of 3 papers:

- Reading and Writing
- Listening
- Speaking

Results and Certificates

There is no pass or fail. All children receive an award which shows how many shields they have received. The maximum score is five shields for each part of the test.

The YLE exam is a great way to celebrate children's achievements, build their confidence and reward their individual ability.

YLE exams prices:

YLE Starters: 1 100,- CZK

YLE Movers: 1.200,- CZK

YLE Flyers: 1.300,- CZK

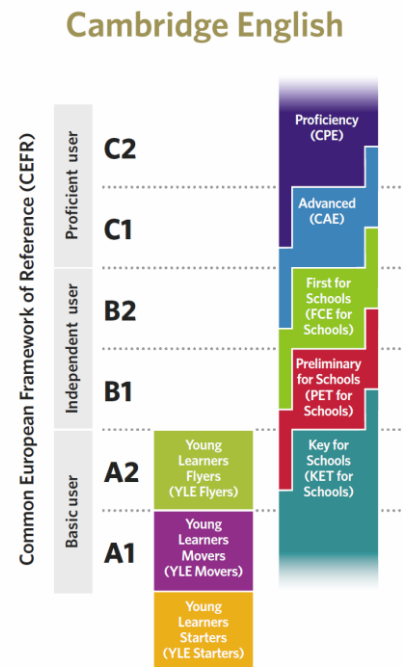

KET for schools / PET for schools exams

If children learn English when they are young, they will have a significant advantage when they leave school. A certificate from University of Cambridge will help your child stand out from the crowd and access the best study, work and life opportunities.

KET/PET for schools exams are designed and developed to motivate students at primary and secondary school. They cover all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking. They bring learning to life, covering topics that your child is familiar with and developing the skills needed to:

- improve in English
- understand books, television, films, songs, the internet and other media in English
- make friends around the world
- travel the world
- study at university or college, either at home or in another country
- get a job and use English at work, either in your country or abroad.

KET for schools and PET for schools exams are highly recognised worldwide and their certificates are valid for life (see the complete list of institutions recognising Cambridge exams at <http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/why-cambridge-english/global-recognition/index.aspx?s=1>).

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a basic level qualification that shows a student can use English to communicate in simple situations.

What level is Cambridge English: Key for Schools?

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is set at Level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\). Reaching this level means a student can:

- understand and use basic phrases and expressions
- introduce themselves and answer basic questions about their personal details
- interact with English speakers who talk slowly and clearly
- write short, simple notes.

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a version of Cambridge English: Key that is particularly targeted at the interests and experiences of school children. It is at the same level as Cambridge English: Key and follows exactly the same format.

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is based on familiar topics and situations so it:

- suits the interests of students
- increases their motivation to learn English
- gives them confidence to use their language skills to move on to further qualifications.

Results and Certificates

Cambridge English: Key for Schools gives detailed, informative results. All students receive a Statement of Results. If a student's performance ranges between CEFR Levels B1 and A1, they will also receive a certificate. Students will receive the same certificate as candidates who take Cambridge English: Key.

KET for schools exam price: 2.450,- Kč

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools, also known as Preliminary English Test (PET) for Schools, shows that a student can understand and communicate using everyday written and spoken English.

What level is Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools?

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is set at Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\). Reaching this level means a student can:

- understand the main points of straightforward instructions or public announcements
- deal with everyday situations when going out
- ask simple questions and take part in factual conversations with friends, family and at school
- write letters or make notes on familiar matters.

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is a version of Cambridge English: Preliminary that is particularly targeted at the interests and experiences of school children. It is at the same level as Cambridge English: Preliminary and follows exactly the same format.

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is based on familiar topics and situations so it:

- suits the interests of students
- increases their motivation to learn English
- gives them confidence to use their language skills to move on to further qualifications.

Results and Certificates

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools gives detailed, informative results. All students receive a Statement of Results. If a student's performance ranges between CEFR Levels B2 and A2, they will also receive a certificate. Students will receive the same certificate as candidates who take Cambridge English: Preliminary.
