NEWSLETTER NO. 5

Dear parents!

You are reading the last Newsletter of the calendar year, so let me thank you for your year-round cooperation and support. Both were very important to us, mainly when we were switching between online and face-to-face classes, as often happened last school year. We also appreciate your help and patience with online learning during quarantine periods enforced for various classes continually in the course of the school year.

I also want to thank you for supporting us in our charity projects carried out a few days ago. I am happy that our pupils showed a great enthusiasm to help; dozens of Shoebboxes and Joy Packets, now going on a big mission – to make the addressees happy, are the proofs.
